

THE MOUSE

Cut out each of the items below and paste them into their correct category.

NORMAL MOUSE

MARSUPIAL MOUSE

Compares and sorts collections of objects from the natural world.

© LearnFromPlay | LearnFromPlay.com

Eats seeds, grains and other plant material

Was introduced to Australia

Has a tail almost as long as its body

Has small sharp "cat-like" teeth

Has long teeth that can be seen outside their mouth

Has a long hair covered tail

Has dropping that look like dark grains of rice

Has a pointy, long, narrow snout

Has a round head and nose

Has no nails on its big toe or thumb

Is native to Australia

Has cylindrical pellet like droppings

Has claws (nails) on all digits

Smells strongly like ammonia

Leaves no smell

Eats flowers, spiders, cockroaches and lizards