

Sari Comprehension

Use the information in the passage to answer the questions below.

A sari is a type of clothing worn daily by women in India, Bangladesh, Nepal, Sri Lanka and Pakistan. It is a very long strip of cloth that women wrap around their body.

Sari's have been around for more than 5000 years and are thought to be the oldest form of garment in the world still in existence. There are different kinds of saris for different occasions. There are more than 30 types of saris available.

In the story Shreya talks about her sari pleats and pallu. The pallu is the material draped on the shoulder once the sari has been wrapped.

1. Where would you typically find a woman wearing a sari?

2. How old is the sari?

3. How many types of saris are there?

4. What is a sari pallu?

Use comprehension strategies to expand content knowledge.

