

Family Tree

In the spaces below draw or paste photos of your ancestors. Underneath each picture write who they are or how you are related to them.

The form consists of a large tree graphic with a brown trunk and green foliage. The tree is divided into seven levels of rectangular photo frames. The top level has three frames, the second level has three frames, the third level has three frames, and the bottom level has one frame. Below each photo frame is a white rounded rectangular box for writing.

Knows who the people in their family are and how they are related to each other.
