

Origami Whale and Baby

Create a mother and smaller baby calf origami whale using the instructions below.

Use a square piece of paper

Fold it in half to create a crease in the middle - then open.

Fold both vertices from the left and the right to meet in the middle of the crease.

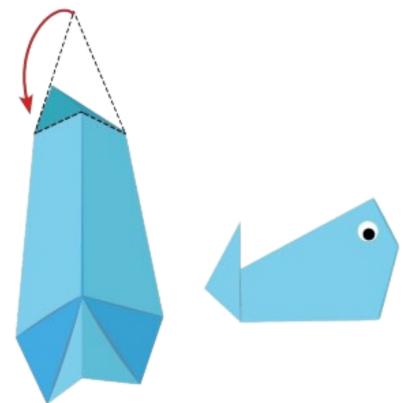

Fold the other vertex to the center until it meets the other vertices.

Fold the paper in half.

Fold the tail from both sides to create a crease then return to original position.

Open your whale. While facing the folded part, fold the tail backward while following the crease. Draw eyes on both sides to finalise your whale.
