

Caroline

Caroline Chisholm found work for more than 11,000 people many of whom were orphans and migrant women and girls. Yet she never accepted charity for herself or her family.

1. Why do you think she never accepted any charity?

2. How would her life have changed if she has accepted charity or asked the girls she helped to contribute to her cause?

Creates persuasive texts with objective, impersonal arguments.

