

Memory Game

During the first part of Ramadan Deenie was unable to play soccer as it took too much energy. She could have played a quiet memory game with her friends using some Islamic symbols like those shown below. Cut out the cards and play your own game of memory.

Interacts positively with others while playing games.

