

DEBATE

Use the roles of debating below to have a debate on an issue in your local area.

What are the roles of each speaker in a debating team?
First Speaker Affirmative	First Speaker Negative
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Welcome audience and fellow debaters Introduce the topic Define the topic Explain the team Line Present their speech. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Welcome audience and fellow debaters Rebut any points from the first affirmative speaker. Define the topic Explain team line Present speech.
Second Speaker Affirmative	Second Speaker Negative
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Rebut any points from the second negative speaker Present their speech. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Rebut any points from the second affirmative speaker Present speech.
Third Speaker Affirmative	Third Speaker Negative
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Rebut any points from the second negative speaker - PLUS restate (using different words if possible) any particularly strong rebuttal points from the negative teams' argument. Present speech. The content of the third speakers' speech is summing up the case - find out what points the other people in your team are using and restate them. Do not simply RETELL them! The third speaker does not introduce any new points!	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Rebut any points from the second negative speaker - PLUS restate (using different words if possible) any particularly strong rebuttal points from the other teams' argument. Present speech. The content of the third speakers' speech is summing up the case - find out what points the other people in your team are using and restate them. The third speaker does not introduce any new points!

Presents persuasive arguments that include research and references to an audience.

