

COMPLIMENTS FAN

Troll went from being mean and saying hurtful things, to being kind and having positive interactions with others. Here's how you can use kind words to make others feel good about themselves.

- 1 Cut out the paper below and accordion fold along the dotted lines.
- 2 Place your name in the given area.
- 3 Pass the folded paper and each must writes a compliment about that person, for example, "You always make me laugh," "I admire your creativity," or "Thank you for always being there for me."
- 4 Once all the compliments are written, the paper can be folded into a fan and used by the owner to cover them in kind words and good feelings.

Demonstrates methods for being caring, inclusive and respectful of others.

© LearnFromPlay | LearnFromPlay.com

Name: _____

A series of vertical dotted lines for writing compliments, starting from a solid line on the left where the name is written.

