

EDIBLE CICADA

Like crickets are a viable source of edible protein which supposedly have a nutty flavour should you wish to cook them. If you prefer to pretend to eat cicadas follow the instructions below for a fun edible cicada.

YOU WILL NEED

- 1 Date
- 1 Sheet of Edible Rice Paper
- Warm Water
- Red Writing Icing

INSTRUCTIONS

- 1 Cut or break the rice paper into small ovals to form the wings.
- 2 Wet one pointed end of each piece of the rice paper oval and stick to the top of the date.
- 3 Draw eyes above the wings using the red icing. (small pieces of strawberry could also be used instead of icing).
- 4 Line up the cicadas.

Follows a sequence of steps for making designed solutions such as a recipe.
