

Physical Activity

Kind allows children to think about the animals that are all around us. Use the cards below to have children move like the animals mentioned in the story. The actions can be called out or merely shown to students to encourage active observation. This activity also encourages children to take cues from those around them and stay safe when moving as a group.

Engage safely in group physically activity to explore their environment and nature.

© LearnFromPlay | LearnFromPlay.com

butterfly

penguin

frog

snake

spider

crab

bug