

The story talks about symbiotic relationships. Symbiosis is a Greek word that means living together. It exists where 2 species form a relationship that benefits both of them such as having a pet dog. The dog gives love and companionship and its owner gives the dog food, a home and love in return. See if you can match the symbiotic pairs below. Then use the internet to research one of these pairs and how they help each other.

-
- | | | |
|-------------------|---|-----------------|
| Bees | • | Algae |
| African Oxpeckers | • | Flowers |
| Ants | • | Fungi |
| Cleaner Fish | • | Hermit Crabs |
| Coral | • | Sharks |
| Goby Fish | • | Snapping Shrimp |
| Sea Anemones | • | Zebra |
-

Where are the pair found?

What does each member of the pair get from the symbiotic relationship?

Draw a picture of the pair.