

Pierre-Jacques Ober makes his scenes for the story using miniature army figures, grass, sand, background pictures and other props. Make either a diorama similar to one in the story or a model of a soldier out of air dry clay. You can paint it when it is dry.

Draw an image of your diorama or soldier below.

